

AFOSR Workshop on Catastrophic Risks June 1 & 2, 2012
SRI Stanford, California

www.ColumbiaRiskManagement.net

SPEAKERS

Kenneth J. Arrow “Bliss, Catastrophe, and Rational Policy”

Brian Skyrms “Probability, Conditionals and Strategic Decisions”

Alan P. Kirman “Economic Crises: Natural or Unnatural Catastrophes?”

Peter J. Hammond “Catastrophes, Rare Events, and Black Swans: Some Methodological Issues”

Graciela Chichilnisky “Optimal Statistic Decisions with Catastrophic Risks”

Louis E. Narens “Subjective Rationality in Decision Making”

Peter Eisenberger “Decision Making Under Uncertainty: Catastrophic Climate Change Risk”

Jun Zhang “Modeling Preference in Non-Hausdorff Topological Spaces”

Sebastien Massoni “Insurance, Beliefs, and Affects: Using Psychophysics Paradigm to Explore Insurance Behaviors Facing Catastrophic Risk”

Urs Luterbacher “Fear, Risk, Conflict Escalation, and Conciliation”

Richard E. Ericson and Jamie B Kruse “Preference Representations in the Face of Catastrophic Risks”

Jose M. Garrido “Risk Management for Heavy Tails, Black Swans, and Other Catastrophes”

Armon Rezai “Global Warming and Economic Externalities: Some Implications for Discounting”

Christopher C. Barton “Scaling Approach to the Calculation of Catastrophic Risk for Natural Hazards”

Bala Rajaratnam “Catastrophic Risks and Extreme Events: Statistical Insights with Applications to Climate Change”